From 1988 to 1991, 15 to 37 teams of observers performed bi-annual, timed counts in 22 sub-areas of the County of Camden. Cumulatively, 92 observers counted 254 886 birds of 243 species. Data from these counts were combined with data from similar counts in seven other sub-areas of the County of Camden from 1982 to 1987 to quantify distribution and abundance of 167 landbird species in six physiographic regions.
