

PRIMARY MOULT SHOULD BE RECORDED INSIDE OUT

KEN G. ROGERS and DANNY I. ROGERS

340 Ninks Road, St Andrews, Victoria, Australia 3761

Received: 9 March 1998

The primary moult scores of Red-necked Stints obtained when moult is recorded from the inside to the outside of the wing differ from those obtained when moult is recorded from the outside in. It is suggested that this is because moult of inner primaries is more likely to be recorded accurately when the inner primary is used as the starting point.